

Park City Boulder

A small boulder with a couple of routes located at the Bad Apple trailhead behind Park City Brewery and Burt's Brothers Tires.

Rock Type: Granite?

Park City Boulder's Directions

Drive to the park city brewery and continue to the end of the parking lot at the bad apple trailhead and hike up the trail for about two minutes until you reach an evident boulder on the left-hand side of the trail. Walk down the evident rockslide area and place pads in the flat landing that has been created.
